

Teller Sofa Warm Black

A little retro, a lot modern. The Teller Sofa mixes flecked polyester upholstery with top grain leather wrapping the arms and back for tonal contrast. Foam, fiber, and faux feather fill cushions keep the sit plush yet supportive, while slim rubberwood legs lift the frame with mid-century ease. Teller turns mixed materials into its signature style statement.

- Streamlined profile: Narrow arms and a clean-lined frame give the sofa a minimal silhouette that nods to retro style while keeping a modern edge.
- Leather accents: Warm black top grain leather wraps the arms and back, soft under touch and naturally developing patina that enhances character with age.
- Textured fabric: Flecked polyester upholstery adds tonal depth and tactile variation, contrasting the leather while providing resilience for everyday lounging.
- Comfort build: Cushions filled with foam, fiber, and faux feather create a balanced sit — plush on first sink, supportive for longer use.
