

Tempo Outdoor Dining Bench Natural

For dining out in the sweet summer sun or party under the stars. The Tempo outdoor bench creates a warm & inviting place to gather where drinks flow & conversations bubble with laughter. The timeless shape and pared-back approach give way to the rich wood tone that varies from blonde to rich amber. Complete this contemporary outdoor set with the matching Tempo outdoor dining table.

- Pared-Back Design: A clean rectangular silhouette and timeless proportions keep the look grounded, modern, and easy to pair with a range of dining tables.
- Solid Teak Construction: Crafted entirely from solid teak, the bench delivers natural water resistance and a warm wood tone that deepens to a rich patina over time.
- Indoor or Outdoor Use: Versatile enough to move between a dining room and patio, giving the bench a flexible role that shifts with the seasons and the occasion.
- Seats Three Comfortably: Generous proportions fit three across the bench with room to settle in, making it a practical addition to any dining setup or gathering space.
