Wiley 4 Door Sideboard Natural

When you want storage that still looks intentional. Wiley pulls from modern Scandinavian and Shaker roots to keep things clean, light, and adaptable. Geometric curves, scalloped edge details, and monolithic round legs give it a confident stance, finished in natural for an airy, easygoing look. Behind four doors, you’ve got space to tuck away the not-pretty stuff — made simple with iron handles that keep the vibe straightforward and functional.

- Scandi Meets Shaker: A simple, contemporary silhouette mixes geometric curves with scalloped edge details and monolithic round legs for a balanced, grounded look.
- Natural Mango Wood: Mango wood construction pairs with an MDF back and drawer bottoms to keep the profile crisp while supporting day-to-day storage needs.
- Honest Joinery: A basic butt joint carcass and rabbet-joined drawers support a straightforward, well-made build that’s designed to hold up to daily use.
- Four-Door Storage: Four doors create generous concealed storage for serving pieces and everyday clutter, finished with iron handles that are easy to use and maintain.
