York Sideboard Dark Brown Burl

Swirling burl grain across the front, one clean brass handle to break it up. A matt medium brown finish keeps the York sideboard grounded and modern, letting the burl pattern do the talking. Acacia wood legs lift it off the floor with a light, easy stance, while soft-close glides keep the drawers quiet. A finished back means it can float in a room, not just line the wall — graphic from every angle.

- Burl in the Spotlight: Swirling burl grain covers the front in a matt medium brown finish, giving the sideboard a graphic, modern presence that anchors the room.
- Brass and Acacia: A single brass handle adds warm contrast against the wood, while acacia legs lift the piece with a light, grounded stance.
- Soft-Close Glides: Soft-close glides ease the drawers shut quietly and smoothly, keeping everyday storage calm and effortless every time you reach for something.
- Finished Back: A fully finished back lets the sideboard float in the middle of a room or divide a space, looking polished from every angle.
