

MEASURED ELEGANCE MEA03

The Semois design from the Measured Elegance collection feels like a study in balance, where precision meets nature, expressed through cream and ivory with elegant luster. Handknotted from a refined blend of New Zealand wool and cashmere, it offers an exceptionally soft hand and a natural sheen. Its sculpted high-low construction brings the pattern to life, with plush cut-pile stripes contrasted by lower, flatwoven channels that create depth, texture, and a gentle rhythm across the surface. The result is a rug that grounds the space with warmth and sophistication, modern yet timeless, and designed to be felt as much as it is seen.
