RIMAL RIM04

The Bastien design from the Rimal collection brings an organic sensibility to the space, where deep blue and ivory unfold through vertical pinstripes and a grounding horizontal band. Handwoven from 100% wool, it offers an exceptionally soft, natural feel, while the organic looped pile adds rich, tactile depth and subtle dimension. This construction not only enhances the texture but also provides durability and resilience, helping the rug maintain its structure over time. The result is a piece that feels both artisanal and effortless, with a richness that comes from its materials and craftsmanship.
