

SERENITA SRE07

A more classic expression of tradition, the Lumina design from the Serenita collection layers ivory and green into a softly distressed pattern that feels timeless yet approachable. Its depth comes from space-dyed yarns - where color is infused with subtle variation. The cross-woven construction blends multiple tones to create a richer, more intricate look. Power-loomed from 100% polyester, it is built for everyday living, offering durability, fade resistance, and easy care, while its dense, low-profile pile delivers a refined finish with a soft hand and gentle sheen.
